"Utterly breathtaking." - First Lady Dr. Jill Biden

A FILM BY ERIK EWERS & CHRISTOPHER LOREN EWERS

Tue, Jan 31 / Episode 1: The Storm (1:56 min.)

Wed, Feb 1 / Episode 2: Resilience (1:52 min.)

A panel discussion with local leaders in mental health will follow both events.

From Ken Burns, Hiding in Plain Sight is a two-part documentary about the youth mental health crisis in America that presents an unflinching look at both the seemingly insurmountable obstacles and the hope that many have found after that storm.

Presented in association with YouthWell, CALM, Mental Wellness Center, and the following UCSB Departments: the Gevirtz Graduate School of Education, Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, the Division of Student Affairs, and Counseling & Psychological Services
