

The UCSB Multicultural Center, the Center for Black Studies Research, the Department of Black Studies, and the UCSB Library present

America to me

Witness it through their eyes.

This 10-part documentary series presents an exclusive look into an academic year at suburban Chicago's Oak Park and River Forest High School. Students, teachers, and administrators from one of the country's most high-performing and diverse public schools are profiled in the face of decades-old racial and educational inequities. The series delves into the experiences of the racially diverse student population, sparking conversations about what has and has not succeeded in the quest to achieve racial equity and overcome bias in education.
