

The UCSB Center for Black Research presents:

50 Years of the Black Panther Party Revolutionary Art and the Black Radical Tradition

featuring

Emory Douglas

revolutionary artist and the BPP's Minister of Culture

& Akinsanya Kambon

painter, sculptor, and author of the Black Panther Coloring Book

Fifty years after the formation of the Black Panther Party, the cultural work of Panther artists continues to inform and inspire the activism of today's freedom movements. We proudly host Emory Douglas and Akinsanya Kambon at UCSB to explore the origins and development of their artwork and reflect on their ongoing commitments and contributions to the liberation of communities across the globe.

CLYDE WOODS MEMORIAL LECTURE
“Revolutionary Art and Black Liberation:
The Black Panther Party to Black Lives Matter and Beyond”

Monday, November 14, 2016

6-8 PM

MultiCultural Center Theater

Emory Douglas and Akinsanya Kambon, in conversation with professors Felice Blake and Diane Fujino, will deliver a presentation on the role of art in cultivating a radical imagination and developing activist practices.

followed by a reception

for the art exhibit at the MCC:

“50 Years and Counting: The Revolutionary Art of the Black Panther Party”

Monday, November 14

8 PM

MultiCultural Center Lounge

Intergenerational Activist Dialogue

A community discussion promoting youth voices and youth leadership in collaboration with various generations of those in struggle for social justice.

Sunday, November 13, 2016

11 AM to 1 PM

La Casa de la Raza

601 E. Montecito Street, Santa Barbara

light lunch provided following the dialogue

RSVP for the lunch to Rosa Pinter

rpinter@cbs.ucsb.edu

805-893-3914

Questions? Contact Diane Fujino, CBSR director, at fujino@asamst.ucsb.edu or Rosa Pinter at rpinter@cbs.ucsb.edu or 805-893-3914

Cosponsored by UC Consortium for Black Studies in California; MultiCultural Center; Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor; Office of the Associate Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Academic Policy; Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; Office of Equal Opportunity and Sexual Harassment/Title IX Compliance; Hemispheric South/s Research Initiative; Global Environmental Justice Project; Department of English; Department of Black Studies; Department of Asian American Studies; Department of Chicana/o Studies; La Casa de la Raza; Ethnic Studies Now! Santa Barbara Coalition; Black Student Union