

The UCSB Center for Black Studies Research presents the 2015 Shirley Kennedy Memorial Lecture

A Vision for the Future that Builds on the Past: Students, Community, and Leadership

Dr. Michael Young

former UCSB Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs

Thursday, April 9, 2015

4:00 p.m.

UCSB MultiCultural Center Theater Reception to follow in MCC Lounge

Dr. Michael Young, recently retired after twenty-five years as UCSB Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs, discusses his vision and values that guided his work as a fierce advocate for the holistic student and in developing collective leadership and team building. He addresses challenges facing the university in this moment of financial cutbacks and strains on student services. He shares lessons learned from both successes and failures as well as a vision for the future that builds on the past.

Cosponsored by the Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor; the Office of the Associate Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Academic Policy; the Office of Equal Opportunity and Sexual Harassment/Title IX Compliance; and Student Affairs