

Join us for a screening of

WATER EVERLASTING?

The battle to secure Haiti's most essential resource

Decades of humanitarian efforts, a massive earthquake, a country on a perpetual search for clean water.

What will it take to get it right in Haiti?

Wednesday, March 12, 2014 4:00–5:30 p.m.

MSI Auditorium

Film screening (25 minutes) followed by a panel discussion featuring:

Nadège Clitandre, Global Studies and Center for Black Studies, UCSB (moderator)

Claudine Michel, Student Affairs and Center for Black Studies, UCSB

Kum-Kum Bhavnani, Academic Senate and Sociology, UCSB

Thierry Delaunay, Water and Sanitation Specialist (Haiti), Inter-American Development Bank

Jose Luis Irigoyen, Country Coordinator (Haiti), Inter-American Development Bank

Questions? Contact Mahsheed Ayoub at 805-893-3914 or mayoub@cbs.ucsb.edu