JUSTICE FOR ALL

"Timely, informative and fascinating."

– Elizabeth Kolbert, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Sixth Extinction

Dr. Ainissa Ramirez promotes a love of exploration, making complex scientific processes both clear and mesmerizing to just about everyone while showcasing the scientific impact of people of color and women whose accomplishments have been hidden.

Presented in association with the following UCSB departments: Materials Department and Graduate Students for Diversity in Science, Enhancing Success in Transfer Education for Engineering Majors (ESTEEM) and the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
