The Power of Extravagant Tenderness

Mon, Apr 18 / 7:30 PM / Campbell Hall /

FREE (registration required/general admission)

“Resilience is born by grounding yourself in your own loveliness, hitting notes you thought were way out of your range.” – Father Gregory Boyle

Father Gregory Boyle has transformed thousands of lives as the founder of Homeboy Industries, the largest and most successful gang intervention and rehabilitation program in the world. Named a Champion of Change by President Obama, he is also the author of Tattoos on the Heart, Barking to the Choir and The Whole Language. In this inspirational evening, Boyle and two Homeboy Industries program alumni will challenge our preconceptions and invite us to treat others – and ourselves – with acceptance and tenderness.
