

The Santa Barbara County Genealogical Society cordially invites you to view our virtual exhibit honoring the life and contributions of some of Santa Barbara's outstanding African American community members.

Santa Barbara African American Life, Culture, and Contributions, 1890-1990

Now ready to view! April 11 – July 3
Exhibit main page ( sbgen.org -> Outreach)

Explore the incredible life, culture, and contributions of nineteen featured local African American families and individuals, plus additional individuals and organizations recognized in these special areas: Arts and Culture, Athletes, Businesses, Churches, Famous Visitors, Military, and Organizations and Social Clubs.

Best Viewing:

1. Click on a featured individual to get to their presentation
2. Click on the three dots on the bottom bar of the slide presentation
3. Click on Enter full screen to enlarge the presentation
4. Press Esc (Escape) to exit full screen
5. Click on Next to go to the next presentation or Return to return back to the main exhibit page

Virtual Exhibit Panel Discussion- April 30th 4:30-6:00pm, FREE Registration

Join us for a virtual panel discussion on the new exhibit Santa Barbara African American Life, Culture, and Contributions, 1890-1990. You will hear from featured exhibit participants who generously shared their stories, photographs, and historical documents, as well as Outreach Committee members who put the exhibit together. Learn about the process and challenges of creating such an exhibit while learning about Santa Barbara's Black history. This event is in partnership with the Santa Barbara Public Library's Book to Action program centering around the family memoir, The Yellow House by Sarah M. Broom. This event will be hosted by SBPL. Register here to attend this free virtual event.